

9. Rahim is educated at Harvard and is currently working in an MNC. He refuses to look after his aged parents.

Do you think, the given scenario is an example of value crisis?

If so, name it and briefly describe it. (5).

Ans:- According to the given scenario, Rahim does not have a proper ^{proportion of} value spectrum which may lead to good life.

- If he had these seven values in him, this problem would not occur.
- Rahim does not have a proper ethical value, he does not have a sense of ~~the~~ doers and don't of life. ~~The parents who~~ It is due to the parents, he graduated from Harvard University, so it is his responsibility to look after them.
- Rahim also does not have Human values. Instead of ^{showing} kindness and respect to his parents, he is refusing to look after his aged parents.

Hence, this scenario is a perfect example of value crisis.

→ Different Levels of Value Crisis.

VALUE CRISIS.

↳ disintegration of values.

Levels

→ Individual / Personal.

→ Family.

→ Society.

(Ex:-  System in ancient India).